

Tim Berners-Lee

The inventor of the World Wide Web

Early life and education

- 8 June 1955 in London, England, United Kingdom.
- Parents were computer scientists.
- Emanuel High School, England
- The Queen's College in the University of Oxford

Career and research

- 1978, Plessey - software for printers.
- 1980, Contractor at CERN , sharing information among researchers.
- 1989, Word Wide web - Hypertext Transfer Protocol (HTTP)

Awards and honours

- 2004, knighthood by Queen Elizabeth II
- 2013, Queen Elizabeth Prize for Engineering.
- 2017, computing's Nobel Prize
- 2018, Time Magazine's 100 Most important People of the 20th Century
- More ...

Thank you

Any question?...

Ruben Lopez Mendoza